All the Regional Joint Directors and District Educational Officers are here by informed that, the SSC public examinations are scheduled in the month of March 2025. It has also been noted that, students appearing for these examinations will do so under the new syllabus. To ensure optimal results and support students in their preparation, the SCERT has developed a 100-day action plan aimed at reducing exam-related anxiety and boosting students' self-confidence

Further the 100-day action plan has been scheduled from 01.12.2024 to 10.03.2025 to mitigate exam-related fear among students and build their self-confidence. The plan is designed to ensure focused and efficient preparation for the SSC March 2025 exams benefiting both students and teachers.

After careful examination of the 100 days action plan schedule, it is also noticed that, there are a total of 8 public holidays between February 2nd, 2025 to March 10, 2025, consisting of 2 Saturdays and 6 Sundays as part of the 100-day action plan, students are required to attend school on these days.

Further it is decided to provide Mid-Day Meals to the Xth class students covered under 100 days action plan with the following menu on Saturday and Sunday

Saturday : Follow the existing Saturday menu

Sunday : Follow the existing Monday menu

Therefore, all the Regional Joint Directors and District Educational Officers in the state are requested to issue necessary instructions to the Headmasters of concerned High Schools to make necessary arrangements and provide mid-day meals to the S.S.C students on Saturdays and Sundays ( between February 2nd, 2025 to March 10, 2025) as part of the 100-day action plan.
